

The proposed 17-108 is a clear and abhorrent violation of the freedom it seeks to restore. I support strong net neutrality backed by Title II oversight of ISPs. Any movement to remove net neutrality is clearly against the interests of consumers and would only serve to give more power and control to ISPs.